Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, The residents of Kennebec, past and present, contribute to the state's vitality and economic prosperity; and,

Whereas, The city of Kennebec is the county seat of Lyman County and can boast of a proud heritage of honest, hardworking, friendly citizens, and neighbors; and,

Whereas, Kennebec has developed and maintained values through faith, education, and pride in their community; and,

Whereas, The community of Kennebec has demonstrated a strong community spirit in supporting local programs, sports, and other school events and are proud of their local businesses and school system; the community responds well to the needs of others through their local organizations and churches, making it the right place to call home:

Whereas, On June 17, 18, and 19, 2005, Kennebec will celebrate its 100th Anniversary:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 17, 2005, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventh Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
